

United Way of Peterborough & District COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENT

New 2010-2011 Community Information Handbook

United Way of Peterborough & District is ringing in the New Year with the release of its all new 2010-2011 Community Information Handbook. Also known as the "Blue Book", the Handbook is a local publication containing information about clubs, not-for-profit agencies, organizations, and government services for residents of Peterborough City and County.

This 282 page spiral bound 8 ½" x 11" comprehensive compilation of community information can be purchased at United Way, 277 Stewart Street, Peterborough from Monday to Friday between 8:30 am and 4:30 pm. The cost of this current edition of the Blue Book is $25.

The new Blue Book is indexed by subject, township, and alphabetically. The variety of indexes assists readers to quickly and efficiently find the services they are seeking.

Community Information Services, www.fourinfo.com, and the Community Information Handbook are brought to you by United Way of Peterborough & District in partnership with the City and County of Peterborough.

To order your copy, call Cheryl at 742-0393 or email volunteer@uwpeterborough.ca.
