

Change starts here.

Labour Programs & Services Development Officer Full Time Job Opportunity

We are looking for those with a passion for social justice, a belief in a strong not-for-profit sector and a deep desire to be part of an engaged and committed workplace. The Labour Programs & Services Development Officer ensures there is a voice for labour in the work of United Way. This position fosters collaboration between Peterborough & District Labour Council, Canadian Labour Congress-affiliated unions, and United Way of Peterborough & District to: encourage union members to become active participants in the local social services sector; raise awareness of social service issues within the labour community; encourage union participation in the annual United Way campaign; directly oversees the labour community advocate program.

Visit our website for a complete job description and full details on how to apply.

Forward a resume and cover letter via email by noon on August 5, 2016:
Lisa Smith, Director (lsmith@uwpeterborough.ca)

United Way and Peterborough & District Labour Council are committed to employment equity.
While we thank all applicants, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.